RESULTS OF WHEAT PRICE INVESTIGATION LAID BEFORE BOARD

County Agent George Kirk Gives Members of County Board of Agriculture
the Results of His Investigations on Wheat
Prices.

At a very important meeting of the Mason County Board of Agriculture held at the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon, County Agent George Kirk laid before that body in detail the results of his recent investigations on the price of wheat and grains in Mason county.

This investigation was asked by the Board of Agriculture when there were so many different prices being offered by the Mason county grain dealers and has been in progress for about three weeks or a month.

Mr. Kirk reports that dealers receive $2.18 1/2 per bushel f. o. b. Maysville for No. 3 wheat on the basis of the Newport News prices. Newport News being the best port for shipment of Mason county grain. It is considered that No. 3 wheat is about the average grown in Mason county. Mr.
Kirk recently sent four samples of Mason county wheat to St. Louis for tasting there. Three of the samples tasted No. 3 and the fourth tested No.
2 and the wheat was about an average of Mason county grain.

Mr. Kirk reports that dealers are offering $2 and $2.05 per bushel for wheat in Mason county at the present time which would indicate that they are making a profit of from .13 1/2 to .18 cents per bushel, while it is stated that they are retailing wheat to persons for chicken feed, etc., at $2.40 per single bushel.

Investigations also disclose that wheat is bringing $2.20 at Ashland and Prof. Fred Mutchler, who lectured on the Farmers' Chautauqua here last week, reported that he had sold his wheat in Western Kentucky which graded No. 3 at $2.14 per bushel.
Mr. Kirk reported that in Carroll county, Kentucky, the grain is being handled co-operatively through the Board of Agriculture at a cost of only one cent a bushel to the growers. He also stated that the government had promised to all farmers who hold their wheat until after the 15th of August a bonus of 1/2 cent a bushel for every 10 days it is held after that date.

Mrs. Ben Rowman, of Newport, who has been visiting relatives at Manchester, Ohio, stopped off here yesterday
for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs.
James Cullen and family.

C. & O. IS ASKED TO RUSH IMPROVEMENTS PROMISED

Chamber of Commerce Asks Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company to Erect Lights Promised at Local Station and to Move
the Stock Yards.

Secretary Dodds, of the Maysville Chamber of Commerce, today wrote to the Divisional Superintendent of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company informing him that the people of Maysville were anxiously awaiting the improvements promised by the railway company several months ago and asking him to please rush these improvements as soon as possible.

The railroad company promised to install two large cluster lights at the foot of Kirk Place directly in front of their new station if the city would furnish the electricity. This the city promised to do but the railroad company has never yet kept their part of the promise and the lights are very badly needed.

The company also promised to move their stock yards which are now on Wood street to the County Stock Yards at the foot of Limestone street but as yet they have never done that.

It is expected that the latter today
written the railroad officials will cause them to get a hustle on themselves and make these promised improvements in the immediate future.

LITTLE GIRL FALLS FROM WINDOW

Little Miss Judith Key, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Holton Key, of Forest avenue, fell from a window at the boma Friday afternoon onto the concrete sidewalk, a distance of about 8 feet and struck on her head. She was rather badly bumped on the head and shaken up and required the attention of a physician but is much better today.

SAVING ON GOVERN- MENT FOOD IS NOT LARGE WITH POSTAGE

Parcel Post Rate From Chicago to Maysville Is So Large That Little Saving Is Made When Purchasing Government
Food.

An investigation today into the parcel post rates from Chicago to Maysville disclosed that they are quite high and that when these rates are paid on food purchased from the government under arrangements which were made known to Postmaster Kehoe here yesterday, the saving is not so great as at first thought.

Although the prices quoted in the government bulletin are much lower than the rates obtaining in the local stores at the present time, when the parcel post charges from Chicago are paid the price is brought almost to that which is being charged in local stores.

It was learned at the post office today that to ascertain the parcel post rates from Chicago to Maysville one should double the number of pounds in the package, turn it into dollars and add four cents. It is found that this rate becomes quite high when figuring the actual cost of the foods laid down in Maysville. In the case of canned tomatoes which are offered by the government at 9 cents a can it develops that after postage is paid the tomatoes really cost the consumer 12 1/2 cents a can while these tomatoes are now being sold in local retail grocery stores at 15 cents a can. A case of tomatoes containing 24 No. 2 cans, at the government price costs $2.16. This case weights 48 pounds which would make the postage $1 making the total cost of 24 cans $3.16 or 13 1/2 cents a can.
The saving amounts to but little and yet in the purchase of a large quantity of food the saving would mean much and it is therefore expected that on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week many orders for this government food will be placed with Postmaster Kehoe at the local postoffice.
Orders can only be placed on those three days.

SUIT TO BREAK WILL OF MRS. EMMASTEW- ART FILED TODAY

Estate Worth Approximately $125,000
Involved in Suit Brought Saturday Afternoon to Break Will of Mason County Woman.

Suit involving an estate worth approximately $125,000 was brought in the Mason Circuit Court Saturday afternoon in behalf of Mrs. Elizabeth Haughaboo against The First-Standard Bank & Trust Company, executor of Emma Stewart, the Bank of Maysville, Garrett Stewart, Mary L. Rubenacker and Edward Rubenacker, Lizzle Stewart and Otis Stewart, Lizzie Casner and John Casner, Etta Noland Stewart, Oma Rubenacker, Ada Rubenacker and Eldon Stewart.

The appellant states that on January 1919, Emma Stewart, her daughter, died leaving the appellant, her mother, and the appellee, Garrett Stewart, her husband, as her only heirs at law and that on February 13, 1919, a certain writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Emma Stewart was produced in the Mason County Court and admitted to probate. The paper named the First-Standard Bank & Trust Company as executor thereof and by the terms of the paper the appellees in this case
were named as legatees and devisees
of the said Emma Stewart.

The appellant says that this paper is not the last will and testament of the deceased for the reason that at the time the paper is dated and executed and for some time prior thereto she was not of sound mind and memory
and by reason of protracted illness
was mentally incapacitated from making a will.

The mother of Mrs. Stewart prays
the court to set aside the probated will.

This is probably the largest suit brought in the Mason Circuit Court in years. The parties live in the Germantown neighborhood and are among that section's wealthy citizens.

little damaged.

ERECT A SILO IS ADVICE OF COUNTY AGENT GEO. KIRK

Drouth Has Ruined Prospects For Corn Crop and Silo Will Furnish Feed.

County Agent George Kirk Saturday
afternoon issued the following statement addressed to the farmers of Ma-
son county:

The drouth has hurt the corn to such an extent that a good rain at this time would not make the crop normal. The farmer who is depending on fodder to winter his cattle and sheep will save a great deal of money,
and have an infinitely greater amount of feed if he will erect a silo at once, and fill it to the top. Furthermore,
the feed will be better, easier to handle, and will be eaten up clean by the stock, whereas the fodder is always more or less of a loss.

High grade fat cattle can be put on the market on a ration of clover or alfalfa hay, a very small amount of corn, and all of the silage they will eat. This is the most economical ration the farmer can feed, since the grain is reduced to a minimum, and the bulk of the ration is derived from the silage.

The farmer who uses a silo intelligently is the farmer who is making money by brains, instead of by the favor of Providence. The self-feeder for hogs, and the silo for cattle are two of the most important items in the solution of the labor problem which is vexing the farmer today. Every experienced farmer in the great cattle feeding district, every Experiment Station, and the Department of Agriculture are urging that silos be erected this fall. The Kentucky Experiment Station has secured a list of the silos
made, and the prices asked, and each County Agent has been supplied with a list. Every type is represented, and the choice of the farmer can govern
his selection.

LAGUARDIA CALLS FOR FACTS

The continued murder of American citizens in Mexico is attracting widespread comment at the National Capitol. More than one rhetorical "gun" has been fired on the floor of the House in the past few weeks against the "vacillating policy" of the administration in its dealings with America's southern neighbor. The Mexican Ambassador, to the United States, Ynacio Bonillas, who has returned to this country after a month's absence, has just issued a statement in which he said that he had found "vastly improved conditions," in Mexico, and that many of the murderers of Americans have been executed for their crimes. He also said he was going to ask the United States to allow the sale of guns, ammunition, supplies and airplanes. The fact that the State Department has not made public any correspondence within the past four months telling of such executions has brought speedy replies to Ambassador Bonillas's statement. Representative Fiorello H. LaGuardia, of New York, who has been leading the fight in the House for the publication of the records of the State Department regarding the relations of the United States with Mexico made a reply in which he said:

"The Ambassador confirms then that many Americans have been murdered. It would be indeed interesting to the American people to have the names and dates of execution of these murderers. It is indeed discouraging to hear constantly of Americans being murdered, but no detailed information as to what action the Mexican Government has taken. I am certain if the State Department had any such information it would be only too eager to make it public, therefore I put little stock in this information until it is confirmed by actual facts. It is indeed interesting to note that the Ambassador is eager to get the United States to permit the sale of guns, ammunition and supplies to Mexico and renew his requests for the purchase of airplanes. Why does Mexico need air planes just now? When guns and ammunition are sent into Mexico, I hope that Americans will at least be permitted to get some of these and to arm themselves against outrages upon them. I wonder if the Mexican Ambassador is willing that the embargo on arms and ammunition be lifted entirely."

AMERICA THE PACK HORSE

In his "key-note" speech in the Senate defending the league of nations covenant, Senator Swanson declared that "without our concurrence and cordial co-operation the contemplated league of nations is doomed to utter failure." And therein he probably spoke the truth. The nations of Europe depend upon the United States to carry the burden, to guarantee the national war debts, to pledge and supply armies for settlement of European disputes, to permit a council of the league to settle our domestic policies wherever other nations are interested. Without our cordial co-operation in establishing what Europe wants, the league would be of no interest to them, and, of course, it would be dropped.

SHERIFF IS CALLED TO SETTLE ROW IN SCHOOL ELECTION

Rocks Hurlled Against Door of Polling Place—Sheriff of County Is Called.

The Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat says:

Answering a telephone call Sheriff Miller hurried to Fincastle, Tuesday evening, where he found a threatening situation, which had developed out of the special election for a two mill levy for school purposes voted upon by the voters of Eagle township.

The door of the voting place had been broken open by rocks hurled. There was a crowd upon the outside demanding that an inspector be permitted to witness the count of the ballots, while those upon the inside stated they had named an inspector, and they proposed to count the ballots under their inspection.

With his situation Sheriff Miller took charge and the count proceeded. There had been cast in the election 185 votes. The count revealed that 123 were against the extra two mills levy and 62 in favor.

Yesterday citizens from that section came to Georgetown and through Young and Barnes had warrants made out for a number of those engaged in the trouble who will be taken before a justice of the peace of that township and bound over for action by the grand jury.

In another place of this issue will be found an item stating that request was made of the county election board for the appointment of one Chilton Rhoden as an inspector of the election. A controversy arose when this request was granted, the point being raised was that the power of naming an inspector rested with the township election officials. The township election officials took this power in their hands and named an inspector.

During the afternoon several citizens of the township gathered, and when time came for closing the election polls, demand was made for admittance of Rhoden as an inspector. After the doors closed Rhoden and those with him are reported to have demanded admittance. This was refused by the election officers. Then it is said that rocks were hurled by Tony Hook, Victor Vance and William Waits, which broke open the door, and one stone was hurled at Clarence Hare. The election officers then sent a telephone message for Sheriff Miller, who went forthwith to the scene. After the count had been made the situation quieted down, and yesterday the legal actions were commenced.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering, Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. O. H. Schiff, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep, I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

OLD LANDMARK IS TOTALLY DESTROYED

Property and Household Goods Completely Destroyed By Fire Saturday Morning.

The Dover News says: About 3:30 a. m. Saturday morning the house and entire contents of the old Wolfs Mill property, owned by Bland Kirk was completely destroyed by fire. The property is an old landmark, on Lee's creek, situated on the Minerva and Tuckahoe pike.

The house was occupied by a tenant, Alexander Gill, and it is supposed that the fire originated from the dropping of a match by one of the Gill children as they returned from an ice cream supper.

The fire had gained such headway before discovered that it was impossible to save anything but several pieces of bed clothing. The oldest boy, 18 years of age, was asleep in a room in the house and when he was awakened he rushed from the room in his night clothing. In order to get in the open it was necessary for him to pass through rooms that were already ablaze, and in doing so his clothing caught fire and were considerably burned before he could rid himself of them.

Mr. Gill had just purchased a new suit for which he paid $37, and this was lost. All the meat and lard was destroyed along with 37 gallons of preserves. There was no insurance carried on the household goods.

Mr. Gill is a good farmer and was making rapid headway, but this loss will amount to several hundreds of dollars.

"Why I Put Up With Rats for Years,"

Writes N. Windsor, Farmer.

"Years ago I bought some rat poison, which nearly killed our fine watch dog. It so scared us that we suffered a long time with rats until my neighbor told me about RAT-SNAP. That's the sure rat killer and is safe one."

SUMMING UP THE EVIDENCE

Many Maysville People Have Been Called As Witnesses.

Week after week has been published the testimony of Maysville people—kidney sufferers—backache victims—people who have endured many forms of kidney, bladder or urinary disorders. These witnesses have used Doan's Kidney Pills. All have given their enthusiastic approval. It's the same everywhere. 50,000 American men and women are publicly recommending Doan's—always in the home papers. Isn't it a wonderful, convincing mass of proof? If you are a sufferer your verdict must be "Try Doan's first."

Here's one more Maysville case. A Sorries, lock and gunsmith, W. Second and Wall Sts., gave the following statement in January, 1912: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backaches and when I stooped over, I had trouble in straightening up. Colds settled in my back and kidneys, too. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the trouble and my back and kidneys became as strong and well as ever."

A LASTING EFFECT
On November 14, 1916, Mr. Sorries said: "I am the same strong believer in Doan's Kidney Pills today, as when I gave my former endorsement. I haven't had any trouble with my kidneys in a long time and I believe the cure they gave me will be permanent."

Prices 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sorries had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

BOOST THE MAN FOR CLUB PRESIDENCY

St. Paul, Minn.—The Advertising Club of St. Paul has started a movement to elect F. A. Selberling, president of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, when that Association meets in New Orleans for its annual convention, September 21 to 25.

The suggestion of the St. Paul club. It appears from a check-up of responses it has received, is meeting with general approval from other advertising clubs, and it appears that Mr. Selberling will find a strong popular demand among the delegates to the advertising meeting, though St. Paul men explain that they have not consulted Mr. Selberling. They plan to make the demand for his service at the head of the advertising association so strong that he cannot refuse.

The Goodyear and the other big tire companies of the country have taken the keenest interest in the work of the advertising association to prevent fraud in advertising, especially in the automotive industry for they realize that advertising has been the controlling factor in making the motor car the popular vehicle that it is.

An unusual number of automobile advertising men, and the sales managers of many of the automobile and accessory companies, will attend the New Orleans convention, the St. Paul club has found, because of their keen interest in the work of the advertising association to fight frauds in the automotive industry.

TRIP OF ARMY TRUCK CO. HAS CAUSED INTEREST

Nothing in Recent Years Has Created More Interest Over Nation Than Transcontinental Auto Trip.

Probably no other movement in recent years has aroused such nation wide interest in good roads as has the transcontinental run of the U. S. army truck convoy, which is now on the last lap of its 3,000 mile trip. Along the route of the Lincoln Highway people from as far as 200 miles on either side of the trail gathered at the stopping points to witness the trucks and their bronze-visaged crews.

Enthusiastic welcomes greet the men in every city, town and hamlet along the route. Receptions, street dances, band concerts and entertainments—each community endeavoring to outdo its neighbor—thus transforming an otherwise monotonous grind into a continuous pleasure jaunt. At Cheyenne, Wyoming, the caravan was greeted by 300 cowboys, headed by Fred Stone, the renowned comedian, who gave a "round up" exhibition. A mammoth celebration is planned at San Francisco where the convoy is scheduled to arrive on September 1.

Thousands of people have heard lectures by S. M. Johnson, who represented the Lincoln Highway Association on the long trip, and by other speakers, on the importance of good roads and highway transportation. At Omaha C. V. King, representative of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. joined the cavalcade with a movie film taken by his company of the army truck convoy and which was shown in each city along the route on the same days the train was there. Thus the people saw the convoy in camp and viewed the movies of it in action.

At Mr. Johnson's invitation Mr. King "took the stump" in behalf of good roads. In introducing his associate, Mr. Johnson said it was not his custom to single out any individual firm, but he couldn't refrain from commending in public the co-operation and interest the Goodrich Company has shown in good road work.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Kansas City, Mo., August 13, 1919.
Editor Public Ledger.

Have just received your Monday issue and find an answer to mine of recent date by one J. H. R. The initials sound familiar, I think I know him, but no matter about that, I am surprised any one should take up anything in that friendly letter and call it criticism. I am truly sorry my brother looked at it in that light. Be it far from me to criticize the good work done in that, one of the dearest spots on earth to me, Ruggles Campgrounds. The language I used while it praised the good work done simply put it secondary to the main object of the organization which certainly is the Salvation of Souls, which did not show in any reports which I saw of the meetings. And as to getting my dates mixed, well perhaps I did but surely my brother you have made mistakes are we not subject to them and many of them?

I was converted in the T. M. Leslie meeting in Third Street M. E. Church in 1872. I used that date because I believed it was soon after that time I attended the Ruggles Campground.

I remember there were many sound conversions in those meetings in the 70s and I remember also a few names I mentioned in my other letter who shouted for joy, and I am sure their lives were lives of holy men and women. Of course there are black sheep in every flock and some fell by the way. But I am sure if it had not been for the earnest work put in at the old camp in the seventies it would not be as spiritual as it is today.

And as to the noble work of Miss Hard it certainly is the back bone of the cause; the work with and for the dear little ones, and may God bless her in her work. In the same connection I mentioned the singer and the good work done by her, her mother, grandmother and great grandmother. There was no false shouting about that outfit.

Well my brother in conclusion I hope to clasp glad hands with you at the next camp meeting if God's willing. So with the utmost good feeling to all, I close.

A. T. SEAMAN.

LUSITANIA SUFFERERS BETRAYED

Shortly after the sinking of the Lusitania suits against the Cunard Company were brought by the relatives of the Americans who lost their lives on that tragic occasion. After a hearing all the cases were dismissed by the court on the ground that the sinking was an act of war on the part of Germany, and that she was responsible for the damages caused. It was intimated that the United States would doubtless make suitable arrangements in the settlement with Germany to compensate those individuals entitled to damages.

When the President submitted the peace treaty to the Senate he took occasion to say, "In the settlements of the peace we have sought no special reparation for ourselves." And that he adhered to that determination with a vengeance is shown by the language of the reparation clauses of the treaty. Therein it is provided that Germany "will make compensation for all damages done to the civilian population of the Allied and Associated Powers and to their property during the period of the belligerency of each as an Allied or Associated Power against Germany."

That paragraph operates to exclude absolutely from any participation in German indemnities all those whose property or relatives were destroyed previous to our entry into the war. The Lusitania was sunk two years before we took up arms against Germany. Hence all claimants for damages are permanently barred from obtaining redress from the party which the court has declared to be solely responsible.

Not only are the Lusitania sufferers and all others who sustained pre-war damages from the hands of Germany excluded from compensation by the specific words of the treaty, but even those who were injured by German violations of international law after our entrance into the war are probably precluded from receiving a share of reparation. Article 237 of the treaty provides that German indemnity installments "will be divided by the Allied and Associated Governments in proportions which have been determined upon by them in advance."

If there has been any determination by the Powers to give the United States or any of its citizens a share of that indemnity the American people have had no word of it, and it is a safe assumption that reparation to our nationals was never mentioned at the peace conference, much less seriously considered.

This failure to secure compensation of any kind for our citizens who suffered from German frightfulness, both before and after our entrance into the war, is one of the saddest features of the whole peace parley. German aggression against us on the high seas, in direct defiance of all the tenets of international law, was what primarily brought have been ignored and

ELPHANT MAY FOLLOW

BUFFALO TO EXTINCTION
Washington, D. C.—Will the famous African elephant soon be as nearly extinct as is the buffalo of the American plains?

Cable dispatches state that the South African Cape Council has decided to exterminate elephants, which are regarded as a menace to the farmers, whose crops they despoil and whose employees they sometimes kill. Sir Harry Johnston, famous African authority, tells of his experiences with African elephants in a communication to the National Geographic society, as follows:

"If, after many years of trial, the African elephant is pronounced to be hopeless as a domestic animal (and it should be remembered that most male African elephants in captivity have shown themselves to be hopelessly savage), then at least for its magnificent ivory, the creature is worth preserving. The Indian elephant is of very little value for his ivory. One day a baby elephant was presented to me by an Uganda chief. Three men were killed in attempting to capture it. But finally they succeeded in their object, capturing the calf, and to my great surprise it trotted into camp behind one of the men."

"This little creature was at the time only 4 feet high. In two days it had become perfectly tame, and would follow a human being readily. It was easy enough to feed him with milk, because all that was required was a bottle with a long neck. For several weeks the elephant thrived and became a most delightful pet. It would allow any one to ride on its back. It would

WILSON VETOES BILL TO REPEAL DAYLIGHT SAVING

Washington, August 16.—President Wilson Friday vetoed the bill repealing the daylight saving law.

The President said he returned the bill "without his approval with the utmost reluctance," because he realized "the very considerable, and in some respects the serious inconveniences to which the daylight saving law subjects the farmers of the country."

Declaring the pressing need of the country was for production by industry, the President said he had been obliged to "balance one set of disadvantages against another, and decide which was the more serious for the country."

The pilot was attempting to execute a loop when he lost control of the machine. Both bodies were mangled.

ARRESTED FOR BURNING STORE

Portsmouth, Ohio, August 16.—According to the police Sam Nealey, 30, a negro, has made a confession which clears up the robbery and burning of the A. J. Hyland general store and post-office at Franklin Furnace, early yesterday morning. The negro, after being taken into custody on suspicion, was found to have two suitcases containing goods stolen from the store. According to the police the negro stated that he and another negro committed the robbery, but denied setting fire to the place. The prisoner stated that the fire must have started from a light they used in searching the place.

STORAGE HOUSES ARE TO BE INVESTIGATED

Government Will Look Into Holdings Of Butter, Eggs and Poultry Over the Nation.

Washington, August 16.—Officials of the Department of Justice planned an investigation today of storage houses in which holdings of butter, eggs, dairy products and poultry have increased from 20 to 299 per cent. since last year.

Prices have soared for poultry and all dairy products during the same year.

Exact data on holdings of all big storage houses in the country are in possession of the Bureau of Markets, which just has finished a careful survey. Justice Department officials plan to ask for all facts brought out in this survey.

"Steps now are being taken to combat this situation," said C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general, in charge of the campaign to prosecute food profiteers.

"Information gathered by the Bureau of Markets confirms the belief of this department that one of the chief factors causing the high cost of living is hoarding of great stocks of food."

RETIRING TEACHER HONORED BY S. S. CLASS FRIDAY NIGHT

Social Given By Men's Class of Third Street Church to Express Their Appreciation of Mr. Carl Dodds, Teacher.

The Brotherhood Class of the Third Street M. E. Sunday School made new record for excellent social fellowship and true appreciation for a real leader last evening. The occasion was brought about by reason of the early departure of their devoted teacher, Carl Dodds. The committee composed of the class president, Duke White, and Messrs. H. C. Politt, F. H. Spencer and J. A. Hill had every thing in fine order when the hour for the party arrived. While gotten up on short notice the larger part of the class which has an enrollment of about fifty were present. The Sunday School Superintendent presided.

After the singing of America and prayer by the pastor, the superintendent stated the object of the meeting and gave expression of his appreciation of the worth of Mr. Dodds to the church and to the community in general. Mr. H. Carr Politt was then presented as spokesman for the Brotherhood class. In a few well chosen words he paid fine tribute to the true worth of Mr. Dodds as a teacher. His heart to heart contact with the men from Sunday to Sunday had built better men of them, and had built the class from a half dozen men in an obscure corner, to one of the big men's classes of the city, meeting in a room all fitted out expressly for their use. Mr. Politt assured their teacher that the best wishes of the class and their prayers for his future success would attend him in his new field of labor. Rev. Peters spoke of the great inspiration Mr. Dodds had been to him as pastor by his ever being ready to aid him with suggestions for the work and willing to cooperate in every good move.

Mr. H. C. Curran, a welcome visitor and invited speaker, was next introduced. He spoke of the worth of a true Christian to the business life of the community, saying that in all his experience he had not known a man coming to our city who had stood for true Christian principles as had Mr. Dodds. In beautiful language, characteristic of the speaker, he paid a most deserving and eloquent tribute to the sterling character of the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and teacher of the Brotherhood class.

In reply to all that had been said Mr. Dodds spoke very feelingly with emotion of his appreciation of what had been said. He spoke of the help the men of the class had been to him. The personal touch with such an excellent body of men desirous to be taught the word of God and how to apply it to life, was a continuous inspiration to the teacher, bringing out the very best there was in him. He urged the men to take advantage of the wonderful opportunity in Maysville for service. He also spoke of his many happy associations in Maysville and those who have been of special help to him in his work. He spoke in the most appreciative terms of the inspiration, help and steady influence on his life of that of the president of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Horace J. Cochran.

Following the speeches of the evening the committee gave expression of their appreciation of their teacher in a very substantial way—ice cream and rich, luscious home-made cake. How those men did enjoy themselves! After all had eaten to their fill, enjoying the time in a social way, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was announced as the parting song. All joined heartily in the song, then with a closing prayer by Mr. Dodds the most pleasant affair ever given by the Brotherhood class came to a close.

Too much cannot be said in commendation of the work of the committee on arrangements. They did their work well and were rewarded in seeing their efforts appreciated. Mr. Dodds will be with the class tomorrow and the Sunday following. That a large attendance is assured for these two Sundays goes without saying. There will no doubt be many visitors, friends of Mr. Dodds, who will wish to be in class the closing days of his work in Maysville.

This article would not be complete without a word in praise for the good wife of Mr. Dodds who has won her way into the hearts of all who have heard her sing and have been associated with her in any way. To Mr. John Walsh was given the honor of saying words in her praise, which he did with the hearty approval of all.

REPUBLICANS READY TO RATIFY ON RESERVATIONS

Twenty Republican Senators Ready to Quickly Ratify Peace Treaty With Certain Reservations.

Washington, August 16.—Twenty Republican senators are ready to stand for quick ratification of the peace treaty with reservations, Democratic leaders in the Senate were informed today by leaders of the Republican group of reservation advocates.

Republicans favoring reservations said a poll disclosed that upwards of twenty senators of their party would support reservations along the general lines laid down by the seven Republican committee members. The prompt committee action. The administration leader declined to say whether he would suggest a change in the announced stand of the administration against reservations.

Senator Hitchcock had an appointment to see President Wilson at the White House late today and was expected to lay before him the whole Senate situation, especially as regards prompt committee action. The administration leader declined to say whether he would suggest a change in the announced stand of the administration against reservations.

Although Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska, the administration leader, still disclaimed any part in the negotiations for a settlement, it was apparent that the move had reached proportions which might threaten the plans of the committee for calling additional witnesses and prolonged consideration of the treaty.

HAVE MUCH TROUBLE WITH BURNING DUMP

The City Fire Department is having much trouble with the Bridge street dump. This dump was allowed to burn for a week or more when water was so scarce and all attempts now to extinguish the flames are of no avail. The fire has gotten into the bottom of the rubbish and there is no chance for the fire company to get to it with water. Unless the seat of the blaze can be reached the dump may burn for many weeks and its burning is a great nuisance to those living in that section.
